INTERNATIONAL STUDENT TRAVEL REQUEST

As an international student at ECC, you are required to communicate your future plans and intentions when completing your program, graduating or withdrawing from school in order to comply with United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) regulations.

Important Information:

- All international students and their dependents who travel outside of the U.S. are required to carry their current original I-20 that contains the travel authorization signature of a Designated School Official
- It is strongly recommended that students and their dependents also carry the stamped original I-20 that was used for their most recent entry to the U.S.
- Please allow a minimum of five business days for this request to be processed
