

GUEST ARTIST SERIES • EVENTS AT 7:30 PM

Held in John Edson Anglin Performing Arts Center

THE 442'S WITH ERIN BODE Friday, September 8

Consisting of two jazz and two classical musicians, The 442's are an acoustic instrumental group exploring the boundaries of jazz, classical, folk, and rock music. Joining them is renowned St. Louis vocalist, Erin Bode, with her bell-like voice. Don't miss this unique collaboration combining outstanding musicianship, group singing, and inventive improvisation, in a performance of innovative and inspired music.

ARIANNA STRING QUARTET Friday, September 29

Hailed for their outstanding musicianship, the Arianna String Quartet has firmly established itself as one of America's finest chamber ensembles. Garnering national attention, the ASQ is now world-renowned-performing, collaborating, teaching, and recording in this country and abroad.

Come see, "how technical excellence, in alliance with imagination and the human heart, can come to create something truly transcendent." – Fanfare Magazine

THE FUNKY BUTT BRASS BAND Thursday, November 9

The FBBB takes classic New Orleans brass tunes and gives them a twist, in the style of Dirty Dozen Brass Band, Rebirth and Bonerama. But don't be surprised if you also hear some Motown, Southern rock, Memphis soul, Chicago blues and St. Louis R&B in the mix. The band has been voted Best Funk/Soul Band by the Riverfront Times Music Awards for four of the past five years.

ST. LOUIS WIND SYMPHONY FEATURING LISA BLACKMORE Friday, November 17

The Saint Louis Wind Symphony is the premier wind ensemble in the St. Louis area, dedicated to the quality performance of the finest literature for wind groups of all sizes. Concerts each year draw hundreds of listeners to a variety of venues and include compositions from classic and contemporary wind band composers. No matter what your favorite genre, join us for a musical selection that is sure to please.

MUSIC FACULTY RECITAL Friday, January 19

Join us as ECC's outstanding music faculty perform a recital, sure to please any set of ears. We are blessed with a staff of acclaimed musicians who have performed internationally, are teaching faculty at major universities, and have collaborated with many other leading artists of their field. They will perform compositions spanning a wide variety of origin and interpretation, making for the most delightful of performances.

DAVID HALEN, BJORN RANHEIM AND JENNIFER JUDD IN CONCERT Friday, March 9

Come hear St. Louis Symphony Concertmaster David Halen and acclaimed SLSO Cellist Björn

Ranheim for an evening of pristine chamber music, joined by pianist Jennifer Judd. Each musician boasts a robust solo career, and their passion for chamber music has amazed audiences all over the world. We invite all to witness their enchanting artistry on the ECC stage.

FULL SPECTRUM Friday, April 20

From deep lows to dazzling highs, fiery passion to silly slapstick, come hear Bass Timothy Schmidt, Tenor Christopher Goeke, Contralto Leslie Jones, and Soprano Lori Shaffer perform the best of songs, arias, and musical theatre favorites in this concert highlighting the full range of voice from faculty members at Southeast Missouri State University – it the Full Spectrum!

THE BRYAN CARTER TRIO FEATURING RONALD CARTER Friday, April 27

What do you get when you combine a St. Louis jazz legend and a rising jazz recording artist? An enchanting evening of jazz by Ronald Carter and the Bryan Carter Trio. But this is not just any evening of jazz – this is an opportunity to experience a dynamic father/son duo performing the music they love best, as only those who have played with the jazz greats can. Rediscover the rich tradition and heritage St. Louis has fostered, as these musicians share their passion for jazz.

MATINEE SERIES

Fridays at 4 PM • in HH 107

AMERICAN VOICES August 25

Enjoy an afternoon of musical selections taken from the pages of the great American songbook performed by soprano Tammy Campbell and pianist Annette Burkhart. Works by Copland, Gershwin, Foster and Sondheim will be featured.

LA PETITE BRISE, A BAROQUE CHAMBER TRIO November 10

The Early Music trio La Petite Brise presents a recital of intimate chamber music for baroque flute, baroque cello and theorbo. The program features music by composers famous for their flute playing including Jacques Martin Hotteterre and Johann Joachim Quantz. In addition, the trio will offer works by two of the eighteenth-century's greatest rivals—Georg Frideric Handel and Giovanni Bononcini—including Bononcini's famous sonata for solo cello.

MELANCHOLIA AND EKSTASIS: KEYBOARD WORKS FROM ACROSS THE CENTURIES

February 2

Join Dr. Michael Tsalka as he masterfully interprets keyboard masterpieces from every golden age of music. Dr. Tsalka, an internationally renowned pianist, is critically acclaimed for his versatility at the keyboard, having recorded 20 CDs for labels such as NAXOS, Paladino, Brilliant Classics, and many more. He is bringing this talent of versatility to the ECC stage for a moving evening of baroque, classical, romantic, and contemporary works.

REQUIRED REEDING: MUSIC FOR CLARINET AND BASSOON

May 4

Southeast Missouri State University faculty members Jacqueline Wilson and Gabrielle 4903Baffoni team up with Kelly Austermann and Jennifer Judd of ECC for a performance of woodwind duos and trios.
