2016-17 CONCERT SEASON

GUEST ARTIST SERIES

7:30 pm in the John Edson Anglin Performing Arts Center

Arianna String Quartet

Friday, September 16

Celebrating their 15th season with the ECC Guest Artist Concert Series, the Arianna String Quartet returns to share another evening of exquisite music. Their performances have been praised for "tonal warmth, fastidious balance...expressive vitality" (Chicago Tribune) and "emotional commitment and fluent virtuosity," (Pretoria News, South Africa). Join us as we enjoy the outstanding musicianship of one of America's finest chamber ensembles.

"Night Music" by Chamber Project St. Louis

Friday, November 11

This group embraces the communicative nature of chamber music to create interactive performances engaging a 21st-century audience by breaking down the perceived barriers to classical music and redefining the classical music experience. This concert will feature the warm sounds of flute, clarinet, strings and harp in works from Pulitzer Prize-winning American composer Caroline Shaw to Hungarian composer Dohnanyi and is anchored by the rhapsodic work entitled A Night Piece by Arthur Foote.

Eliot Trio

Friday, March 3

ECC is pleased to welcome back the Eliot Trio as they bring masterworks of piano trio literature to life. Comprised of Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra Concertmaster David Halen, SLSO cellist Bjorn Ranheim, and pianist Seth Carlin, the Eliot Trio presents a powerful combination of talent.

Cortango Orquesta

Friday, April 21

Cortango Orquesta, a tango ensemble with a symphonic twist, is a concert and dance band featuring members of the Saint Louis Symphony Orchestra. Founded and led by Cally Banham, Cortango specializes in popular classics from the beloved orchestra leaders of Tango's golden era. Join us as we come together and lose ourselves for a night, in pursuit of the high art form of Argentine Tango.

The Trombones of the St. Louis Symphony

Thursday, September 29

Since 2006, the Trombones of the Saint Louis Symphony have taken their finely honed ensemble skills out of the symphonic concert stage and into chamber music settings across the U.S. The International Trombone Association Journal, in a review of their most recent recording, Fleur de Lis, cited "an astonishing amount of versatility and virtuosity." The Trombones continue to expand the repertoire of the trombone quartet with commissioned works as well as their own arrangements and transcriptions.

St. Louis Osuwa Taiko

Friday, November 18
Pre-concert Workshop at 6:30 pm

An evening of cultural exploration awaits as ECC welcomes St. Louis Osuwa Taiko to the stage. This unique group performs and teaches taiko, the art of Japanese ensemble drumming. In doing so, the group helps preserve and contribute to the art, while bringing enjoyment to the community and fostering an understanding between Japanese and American cultures. Come learn this traditional art form in the workshop, and stay for a fascinating concert by St. Louis Osuwa Taiko.

French Masterworks: Poulenc's Double Piano Concerto and Gloria

Friday, March 17

Discover Poulenc's celebrated piano and choral works, presented by ECC music department faculty and students. The evening will feature acclaimed pianists Dr. Michael Tsalka and Dr. Jennifer Judd performing Poulenc's Double Piano Concerto, and ECC Choirs under the direction Dr. Timothy Sexton performing the Gloria.

Gateway City Big Band

Friday, April 28

The 17-piece Gateway City Big Band has been entertaining audiences in the St. Louis area and beyond since 1966. The band's diverse library includes authentic charts stretching from the big band era to more recent styles and artists. Known for its fine musicianship, great vocalists and soloists, and musical variety, the band is the feature attraction at concerts throughout the region.

MATINEE SERIES

Fridays at 4 pm in HH105

Postcard From Spain

Friday, August 26

Join pianist Annette Burkhardt and soprano Tamara Miller-Campbell for "Postcard from Spain," a light-hearted afternoon of Spanish music. Leave your passport at home and travel with us as we explore the works of Rodrigo, Obradors, Falla and more.

Jane Solose Piano Recital

Friday, September 23

Canadian-born pianist Jane Solose, Steinway Artist and professor of piano at the Conservatory of Music and Dance at the University of Missouri-Kansas City, will perform a piano solo recital.

Seth Carlin in Recital

Friday, October 21

Join acclaimed pianist Seth Carlin for an afternoon of classic piano music. A prizewinner in the International Busoni Competition and a recipient of a grant from the National Endowment for the Arts, Carlin will share his artistry in a program of Mozart, Beethoven, Chopin and Debussy.

Shall We Dance

Friday, January 27

Drs. Jon and Mia Hynes, esteemed piano faculty from University of Central Missouri, will present an engaging concert of piano duo works.

Voices of Women

Friday, February 24

Voice faculty from Southeast Missouri State University, along with Leslie Jones and pianist Jennifer Judd, will perform a unique program of vocal works by women composers.
