

CRITERION 1: MISSION

The institution's mission is clear and articulated publicly; it guides the institution's operations.

Core Component 1A: The institution's mission is articulated publicly and operationalized throughout the institution.

1A1. The mission was developed through a process suited to the context of the institution.

Do you know ECC's mission? Can we (students, faculty, staff) articulate the mission and vision? Where is the mission located? How was it developed? How does our mission connect with who we are - our are and our communities?

1A2. The mission and related statements are current and reference the institution's emphasis on the various aspects of its mission, such as instruction, scholarship, research, application of research, creative works, clinical service, public service, economic development and religious or cultural purpose.

Is our mission current? How often do we review and revise our mission? How do we know if our mission still fits with our work and our constituencies?

1A3. The mission and related statements identify the nature, scope and intended constituents of the higher education offerings and services the institution provides.

Who are our constituents? How are they represented in our mission?

1A4. The institution's academic offerings, student support services and enrollment profile are consistent with its stated mission.

What are some things that your department does that are consistent with ECC's mission? How does your work reflect or support ECC's mission?

1A5. The institution clearly articulates its mission through public information, such as statements of purpose, vision, values, goals, plans, or institutional priorities.

Where can I find the mission? How often is it used in your daily work? How is it incorporated in your daily work? How does the Strategic Plan relate to the mission?

CRITERION 1: MISSION

The institution's mission is clear and articulated publicly; it guides the institution's operations.

Core Component 1B: The institution's mission demonstrates commitment to the public good.

1B1. The institution's actions and decisions demonstrate that its educational role is to serve the public, not solely the institution or any superordinate entity

In what ways do we serve the public (as opposed to serving the institution or the state)? What sort of "actions and decisions" support that? What does "public good" refer to?

[Empty dashed box for response to 1B1]

1B2. The institution's educational responsibilities take primacy over other purposes, such as generating financial returns for investors, contributing to a related or parent organization, or supporting external interests.

In what ways does our educational responsibilities end up being at the forefront of other institutional activities?

[Empty dashed box for response to 1B2]

1B3. The institution engages with its external constituencies and responds to their needs as its mission and capacity allow.

How do we know what our community needs? How do we determine the "public good" for our public?
