

Studying for Vocab-Heavy Classes

Rheann Spier

Standard Resources

- Quizlet
 - Flash cards
 - Games
 - Make your own or borrow someone else's
 - Can put pictures in them
- Khan Academy
 - Videos
 - Practice questions
- Kahoot
 - Interactive quiz games
 - Flash cards
- Notecards
 - Write the vocab at least once by yourself before trying to repeat it online.
 - Color coding
 - Portable

Personalization

- Make it your own!!
 - Put it in your own words. Make it make sense to you.
- Does the word sound like something similar that is easier to remember?
 - Ex.
 - Listerine = Joseph Lister
 - Tavolo = table
- Is there an easier way to explain it with smaller words?
- Can the word be broken down?
 - Root words in biology are often something to look out for
 - Ex. Depressor labii inferioris = a muscle under the lips that lowers them

Make it Fun!

- Can it be a song?
 - Songs are easy to remember and easy to repeat.
 - Ex.
 - The alphabet song
 - The periodic table song
- Can you make it a game? Can you find a game with it on the internet?
 - Word searches/Cross words
 - Monopoly
 - Typing games
 - Ideas?

Let's Get Physical

- Is it something you can touch?
 - Ex.
 - Anatomical model
 - 3D cell model
 - Your own body parts
 - Places around the house
 - Your favorite book
- Is it something you can see?
 - Labeled coloring pages
 - Diagrams that you can label
 - Drawings
 - Movies or YouTube videos

Phone a Friend

- Can you explain what these vocab terms are in your own words in a way that someone else knows what you're talking about?
- Make your friends and family ask you what the thing is.
 - Surprise quizzes!
 - Ex.
 - What is leg in Spanish?
 - What is this bone?
 - What was that thing you told me about yesterday with the variables?
 - Rubber ducky method
 - Make friends/acquaintances in the class.
 - Get tutoring!