Leave Definitions

- Working from Home While Quarantined – Employees who have been directed to quarantine due to COVID for a period of time (typically 14 days) are asked to work from home. Employees unable to work from home will use appropriate leave (see below).
- College paid pandemic leave - full-time employees (up to 80 hours - max) and part-time employees (up to the average number of hours the employee normally works in a two-week period - max) are eligible for College paid pandemic leave at the employee's regular rate of pay where the employee is unable to work on campus or work from home due to COVID-19. This leave is available through December 31, 2020 and is separate from the FFCRA Emergency Paid Sick Leave.
- FFCRA Emergency Paid Sick Leave - full-time employees (up to 80 hours - max) and part-time employees (up to the average number of hours the employee normally works in a two-week period - max) are eligible for FFCRA paid emergency sick leave at the employee's regular rate of pay where the employee is unable to from. This leave is available through December 31, 2020 and is separate from the College paid pandemic leave.
- College paid sick leave, personal leave and vacation leave – full-time employee may also use sick, personal or vacation leave if not able to work.
- COVID-19 Timesheet - if an employee is using leave related to COVID-19, please complete the COVID-19 timesheet that replaces the leave of absence form.
- Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA) - The Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA or Act) requires certain employers to provide their employees with paid sick leave or expanded family and medical leave for specified reasons related to COVID-19. The Department of Labor's (Department) Wage and Hour Division (WHD) administers and enforces the new law's paid leave requirements. These provisions will apply from the effective date of April 1 through December 31, 2020. Generally, the Act provides that covered employers must provide to all employees:
 - Two weeks (up to 80 hours) of paid sick leave at the employee's regular rate of pay where the employee is unable to work because the employee is quarantined (pursuant to Federal, State, or local government order or advice of a health care provider), and/or experiencing COVID-19 symptoms and seeking a medical diagnosis; or
 - Two weeks (up to 80 hours) of paid sick leave at 2/3 (two-thirds) the employee's regular rate of pay because the employee is unable to work because of a bona fide need to care for an individual subject to quarantine (pursuant to Federal, State, or local government order or advice of a health care provider), or care for a child (under 18 years of age) whose school or child care provider is closed or unavailable for reasons related to COVID-19, and/or the employee is experiencing a substantially similar condition as specified by the Secretary of Health and Human Services, in consultation with the Secretaries of the Treasury and Labor. A covered employer must provide to employees that it has employed for at least 30 days:
 - Up to an additional 10 weeks of paid expanded family and medical leave at 2/3 (two-thirds) the employee's regular rate of pay where an employee is unable to work due to a bona fide need for leave to care for a child whose school or child care provider is closed or unavailable for reasons related to COVID-19.
 - For additional information, see the FFCRA poster.
