Evan & Stacey Smith,
Reliquary

EXHIBITION
September 4 through
September 28

RECEPTION
September 28
6 - 8 p.m.

Evan and Stacey Smith are a collaboration from St. Louis, Missouri. Their artwork manifests their own union of art and science creating sculptures that seamlessly meld the two disciplines and can be appreciated by both audiences. They use newer technologies including 3D printing, laser cutting, CNC machining, computer programming, custom fabrication and custom electronics.
